

Revocation of Consent to Publication on Fansly

I understand that Fansly requires that all Creators provide documentation verifying the age of each individual depicted in the Creator's content, and that each depicted individual has consented to appearing in the content. As such, I previously verified my age and consent to the recording and publication of content on the account located at _____ ("Account"). However, I now revoke my consent from further publication of content containing depictions of me on the Account, and I request Fansly remove the content located at the following URLs in which I am depicted:

Full Name: _____

Username / Stage Name: _____

Date: _____
